Good afternoon,

On 05/24/18, Temple Station deputies responded to Rosemead High School regarding an email threat to the safety of the school. The threat referenced a previous bomb threat message from the day prior. Based on the facts at the time, school officials did not evacuate the school.

Within the next several hours, Temple Station detectives were able to identify and detain a Rosemead High School student who was responsible for the threats made to the school. Criminal charges are pending. Temple Station Detective Bureau is handling the case.

Thank you,

Dave
